PENALTY SHOOT OUT EARNS PENRITH GRAND FINAL BERTH

ST GEORGE 2

(Penrith won 5-4 on penalties)

If there is just one thing that St George

Big defender KAAN DAVIES moves forward for the Panthers.

player coach Paul Carter will recall about this finals series it will be his own part in the penalty shoot out stage each time they took the field.

For twice inside eight days the polished professional has missed crucial penalty kicks at the business end of the game.

The previous week it was Carter who elected to take the first of his team's penalties and his shot was saved by the keeper; this time, he chose to put himself down as taker number six, no doubt hoping that his side would not need more than five attempts to seal the win.

He counted against his second taker Louis Dounis striking the base of Penrith keeper Mike Gibson's post, thus ensuring that the other three takers all needed to score to keep the Saints in the contest.

Penrith had been handed a penalty shoot out lifeline after Trinity Allen had saved Brett Buckpitt's shot only to hear referee Vic Gauci blow his whistle repeatedly for the kick to be retaken after the keeper had moved. A reluctant Buckpitt, perhaps feeling that his chance had already come and gone, took a long time returning to the spot to beat the keeper at the second attempt.

With all the other Penrith takers except Ben Wright being on target it was left to Danny Hinton to open the sudden death sequence and drill the ball past Allen nicely.

The pressure was then on Carter and he placed the ball on the spot with a great deal of precision. Unfortunately for him, it was only an outward sign of confidence as his shot was weak and easily read by the big man Gibson who had plenty of time to stretch out and take the ball off the ground by his left post.

It was a pity that the game had to be settled by penalties in the first place.

St George had opened the scoring very early on when Louis Dounis ran onto a through pass from Alex Araujo who had won a tackle 40 yards out and lifted the ball over the defence for Dounis to go on and beat Gibson with a cool finish.

Stefan Janic has seconds earlier nodded a Mark Brennan free kick just inches wide of the left post and was always in the right mood to cause anxiety in the Penrith defence.

Unfortunately for St George Janic, already under an injury cloud, was forced to pull out less than an hour into the game with injury and another option went with him.

St George continued to hold sway for much of the opening half hour, with Janic sending Gordon Sutherland through on the right with a tremendous diagonal pass only for an alert Gibson to come out to thwart the danger.

This was in the 19th minute and the danger was not over for Gibson as the big man was forced to tip a lob from Leo Carle over the bar after it looked like dipping at the last minute.

Penrith then began to assert themselves on the game and probably had the better of the remaining period of the game, with isolated moment of St George pressure.

Danny Hinton headed over in the 25th, Ben Wright drove wide in the 28th from a free kick and Jon Hawkins skimmed the bar in the 35th with a shot from the right after a cross from Wright has been nodded on by Casserly.

Dounis ran onto a good pass to bear down on Gibson's goal in the 40th, but when the keeper blocked the shot and the ball fell handily for Janic, the clever striker lifted the ball over the bar from right in front.

With all the other Penrith takers except Ben Wright being on target it was left to Danny Hinton to open the sudden death sequence and drill the ball past Allen nicely.

Richard Astone responded for Penrith when he headed just over in the 44th from a cross on the left by Garth Tehlewic.

A livelier second half saw Araujo almost get a second for the Saints seven minutes after the restart, hitting a clever lob that dipped late after clearing the crossbar.

Penrith drew level for the first time in the 56th when Danny Hinton seized on a poor clearance out of the St George defence and took the ball on a few paces before chipping Allen who had strayed too far off his line.

Penrith did not stay level for long, as second half substitute Anthony Adamo who had replaced a limping Janic, was able to bullock his way through the defence and slam a low shot past Gibson in the 67th minute to restore the lead and it was 2-1 at this stage.

Six minutes later from a nice chip through by Araujo, Dounis was able to get to within a few yards of goal before testing Gibson with a shot that the keeper did well to get down and smother.

In the 74th minute Penrith drew level a second time when Robert Wozniczka got the ball over from a free kick after Hinton had been bundled off the ball by a defender.

The ball eluded a string of players in the goalmouth before arriving at the far post where Astone was able to more or less tap in for a 2-2 scoreline.

Hinton figured in a number of likely looking moves in the last ten minutes, attempting another long range dipping shot that cleared the bar narrowly and then running through to accept a well flighted through pass from Wright only for Allen to rush out and punch clear.

When the game moved into extra time St George found a new lease of life and Gibson was forced to save twice at close range from Adamo and Carle, with Adamo also guilty of missing an open goal at one stage.

And then came the dreaded penalty shoot out that ended this dramatic contest.

St George had played two weeks in a row without losing in 4 hours of football and yet found themselves out of the picture.

On balance Penrith just had the edge, though it was a very narrow one and there was sympathy for the Saints who may have done better with a fully fit Janic throughout this series.

It is now up to Penrith to win their fourth in a row if they are to claim the major prize. It is a task that is by no means beyond them, given Manly-Warringah's patchy form this month.

Manly has beaten Penrith already this year, but the Panthers seem to be on fire right now and it will need a big effort from the Dolphins who will be playing only their second game in a month on Sunday.

The game should draw a big crowd to St George Stadium for an absorbing contest.

(Penrith won 6-5 on penalties)

This game was settled after extra time with a penalty shoot out, Moorebank's first taker Trent Dunlop seeing his shot saved and waiting until Penrith's fifth taker Ejea missed before discovering that his own off target shot would not be the difference between the sides on the day.

Instead, it was Bywater's seventh kick for Moorebank that missed the target, after Penrith's Zalewski had put away the Panthers last kick successfully.

MacPherson had given Penrith a 4th minute lead, but by the 37th the Moorebank team was level once again, thanks to a strike from Sanchez.

Penrith now meets A C United again in The Grand Final, having been beaten in the first match of the series 4-2 a fortnight earlier.

Don't leave home without it!

Hot on the heels of the Pepsi deal for sponsorship of the youth competitions, the NSW Soccer Federation is set to announce another new sponsorship later this week with the American Express organisation.

American Express will create and market an American Express soccer football card with the help of the Federation, and provide support for development of elite men and women players, including the NSW Institute of Sport programs.

The Amex card will provide up to 55 days interest free and have an annual membership fee of $25, to be waived in the first year.

The card is expected to have an identifiable soccer image.

Full details will be available in next week's Super Soccer. In the meantime, if you are interested in finding out more, just let the Federation know by telephoning them on 02 9629 1800 or send an e-mail to - info@soccernsw.com.au

About 500 people attended a game between Macarthur Rams and Parramatta Power at Lynwood Park, Campbelltown, on Saturday night.

Macarthur used the occasion to announce two exciting new deals for the Super League club: first, they now have as a major sponsor the Campbelltown Catholic Club. The objective of the sponsorship for both the Rams and the Campbelltown Catholic Club is "to give greater recognition and focus to the Macarthur area as part of Sydney."

The Rams also announced an arrangement with NSL new-comers Parramatta Power which gives Power early access to their players, agreed $ for transfers and some input into local junior development.

The game finished 2-1 to the Power. Macarthur scored first, but Milan Blagojevic is in the record books for scoring Parramatta Power's first ever goal with a strong strike after a set play, which was followed-up about two minutes later by Joel Griffiths who put it away after a goalmouth scramble, just prior to half-time.

There was a remarkable game last week which saw Super Soccer receive a number of calls expecting a mis-print in the results. Never!

White City did in fact defeat, as printed, Maroubra United 24-0, with 9 goals coming from R Filipovic, and another 7 from Richard Varga.

The David Carty and Peter Forsyth Memorial Cup sees another big game this weekend, with Sydney United playing the Wollongong Wolves at Edensor Park.

The game is on Sunday August 29th, with kick off at 3:00pm.

Last week's action saw Marconi hammer Canberra 6-1 while Northern Spirit defeated Newcastle Breakers 2-0 and Sydney Olympic pushed out Super League club Parramatta Eagles 2-1.

Olympic scored early against the Eagles lead when striker Jim Bakis drilled the ball home.

Former Socceroo Chris Kalantzis took Olympic to 2-0 midway through the second half with a drive from the edge of the area after Englishman Marcus Phillips provided the lead up work.

But Parramatta was able to find a gap in a lax defence two minutes later when Balla Conde was quicker in a goalmouth scramble and scored from 12 metres.

SEMI FINALS SUMMARY

HAJDUK WANDERERS FINALLY BEAT FRASER PARK SYDNEY UNIVERSITY TEACH HURSTVILLE A LESSON

MAJOR SEMI FINAL - FIRST GRADE
HAJDUK WANDERERS 2
FRASER PARK 0

It took them all season and well beyond to do it, but in a bloodied battle at Popondetta Park Hajduk Wanderers finally beat their main rivals Fraser Park - and they did it with ten men and with a goal to spare.

The club also enjoyed success in the lower grades, getting their Under 21s into the Grand Final and their Under 18s back this weekend for a showdown with Hills United, the Premiers in the Preliminary Final.

The Wanderers were clearly the more motivated of the two teams and in Shane Crampton they had a player who could worry the life out of any defence on his best form. And that is just what he did on this occasion.

Crampton fell foul of referee Kevin Humphreys before the break, but a lot of the damage had been done by then and even with ten men facing them Fraser could not break through to draw level, let alone go on and win the game.

While the attack of the season's second placed Hajduk was full of running, especially Damien Brown who hassled defenders all afternoon, it was the sensational form of the Wanderers' keeper Darren Cross that ultimately secured Phil Pavela's team their Grand Final berth.

Cross was just too good for anything Fraser had to offer, with countless point blank saves as the opposition came forward in droves to lay siege to his goal.

Wanderers clearly were playing their best football of the season when the game began and Crampton displayed all his old form to run the Fraser defence ragged in the torrid opening spell.

Crampton set off on a solo run and got the ball past Angelo Rodic at the near post with a smart finish in the 17th minute, and in soaking up pressure for the remainder of the half Hajduk held their lead comfortably at the break as their solid defence did not allow Matthew Zec, in particular, much room in which to operate up front.

Crampton, meanwhile, was dismissed for a dangerous tackle in the 40th minute, leaving Hajduk with another 50 minutes in which to stave off the hungry Fraser attack.

Zec did make a swift break in the second half and faced Cross, but the young keeper kept his cool and denied the top scorer his chance to put Fraser level.

Hajduk also lost two more players in the second period, influential midfielder J J Ellul and creative spark Rick Giometti both having to be replaced due to injuries, but in Tony Krslovic and Stephen Pirie the Wanderers had more than capable substitutes to bring on in their place.

Towards the end of a tense contest Damien Brown finally found some space and with almost his last breath dashed down the right flank, cut in and beat Rodic from a tight angle to seal the game.

Ennio Morson, clearly Fraser Park's best on the day, forced a great save out of Cross towards the end, but one sensed that it was Hajduk's turn this time and they gave their supporters a big thrill in front of a decent crowd at Popondetta Park.

Brown came off immediately, looking, and no doubt feeling, totally exhausted, but there were plenty of cheers for his replacement, the injury troubled Jim Boudaher, whose only full game this season produced a hat trick. With question marks over a couple of players and two more weeks until the Grand Final, he may well play his major part in the club's season after all.

Giometti, with a shoulder injury and Krlsovic with a hand injury were both taken to hospital for treatment, but the 30th minute clash of heads that left ultra-reliable Fraser defender Zaya Jebraiel with a cut head that required six stitches was the worst of the injuries after a bruising Major Semi Final.

Ante Zizic took over in the covering role at the back, which left Fraser with fewer options going forward, but overall it did look as though the motivation game was won in the lead-up sessions by Hajduk who need some compensation for missing the title by just one win and a few extra goals.

MINOR SEMI FINAL - FIRST GRADE

SYDNEY UNIVERSITY 3
HURSTVILLE ZSC 0

The boys from Sydney University were primed for their semi final against Hurstville, a side they had beaten in the third round and whom they believed they could beat again with the pressure on in earnest.

And so it proved with the city-based side really stretching Hurstville with some good running off the ball, tackles with plenty of bite and some intelligent long balls played in the path of a willing pair of front runners.

There was an early scare for the students, however, in the 12th minute when Mark Dearden was forced to boot the ball off the Sydney Uni line to deny a closely lurking Steve Milicevic who had looked set to latch onto a Bob Barisic pass inside the area.

Luke McDougall was causing many problems down the left flank for the students and his cross from the byline in the 27th deserved better than to be allowed to skim across the face of goal untouched.

Rob Smithies, the scorer of twenty goals during the season, despite missing a handful of matches, mad his presence felt in no uncertain terms when he made a sizzling run through on the left to dance into the area and chance his arm with a shot that keeper Tom Miletic could barely swat at, laying the loose ball on a plate for David Gill, who bundled the ball over the line at the far post in the 34th minute.

Hurstville enjoyed a good period of play after this until the break when a cross from the left by Ante Buntic was nodded just over the bar by Gary Deprato and a free kick played into the box by Robert Babaic for Ante Majestic was sliced over the bar from close range.

Matt Craw in the Uni goal looked uncertain at times, in this game, but still managed to produce some very special saves, few better than in the 51st when forced to tip over another excellent looping header from Deprato who seized his chance when Babaic lifted the ball over from the left. Smithies and second half substitute Gordon Pitt both continued to show enterprise and it needed a very timely tackle to prevent the ace marksman from capitalising on a probing long pass from McDougall in the 54th and similarly, also from McDougall's cross, Pitt sent a nice header only inches over the bar in the 58th.

Milicevic put Craw under considerable pressure following a 61st minute corner, with a header that the keeper was forced to scramble to reach, but the Hurstville side were relatively quiet, even by that stage and coach Ivan Gagro was forced to bring on fresh legs to try and lift their level of commitment.

Sydney Uni went further ahead in the 66th when Gill won a crunching tackle in the middle of the park against Ante Susic and lifted the ball over the heads of defenders for the speedy Smithies to race through and take the ball around the keeper. Though forced a little wide which gave Hurstville skipper Bob Barisic time to get back, Smithies kept his head to slot the ball home.

Barisic was pushed forward and almost got a volley under the guard of Craw in the 76th and the young keeper also did well to tip a lofted ball from Majestic over the bar two minutes later.

Dan Felton played a top ball down the line on the right for the hard running Smithies to get to the byline and cross firmly to the far post where Pitt arrived perfectly to stroke the ball home in exemplary fashion.

It was a goal that delighted coach Jim Gallacher, who enjoyed the moment, but overall was not entirely satisfied with the creative work of his players on this occasion. He reserved his most praise for young defenders Mark Dearden and Nick Taylor who both shone in defence against an attractive footballing side who just lacked the necessary punch on the day.

Hurstville coach Ivan Gagro was considering his future after the game, reflecting on many, many years at the helm and not a little success. He felt that the players were no longer responding to his urgings as they had been around him too long, perhaps. A very big week of training gave him cause for optimism, but on the day the players could not achieve the necessary level of motivation to match it with the students in his opinion.

He has guided the team into the semi finals in many of the past few campaigns and he will contemplate taking a break from the game now after this performance.

For the Sydney University team, however, there is the prize of another crack at Fraser Park a side that has beaten them twice this season. Maybe they will be the better motivated of the two teams again this weekend?

Greystanes were on top early in the game at Hajduk Stadium with Quarty causing quite a few problems for Hills, only the swift intervention of keeper Marcus Moscos denying several goalscoring opportunities for the Stanes' front runner.

Greystanes continued to pile on the pressure in the second half and it needed another one-handed Moscos save to prevent Hendry from opening the scoring in the game in the 52nd minute.

It was 68 minutes into the game when the deadlock was broken - against the run of play - when Hills played the ball over the heads of defenders for Julian Miller to run through and beat Kris Griffith-Jones, after rounding him inside the area, when he had been left exposed by a retreating defence.

Further chances fell to Hills, with Omar Makki and Vaughan Profilio both missing narrowly, before Greystanes at last got the ball in the net on the stroke of full time, only to be told that the goal would not stand as the offside flag had been raised.

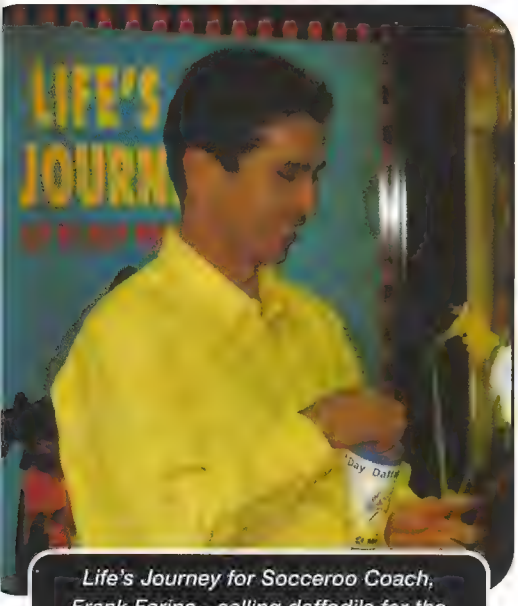
Frank Farina was announced as Socceroo coach 10 days ago by Soccer Australia Chairman, Basil Scarsella. Bonnie Mersiades caught up with Frank last week.

Frank
The Ghost Buster



Life's Journey for Socceroo Coach, Frank Farina - selling daffodils for the Cancer Council.

For a start, let's get one thing straight. Frank Farina is not the first Australian-born coach of the national team.

That honour actually goes to Joe Marston who was born in Leichhardt in 1926 and played in the NSW League from 1942 to 1949 before joining English First Division team, Preston North End, where he stayed from 1950 to 1955.

Marston returned to Australia in 1955 and went on to play for Australia 25 times. He was coach of the national team on a handful of occasions, mostly against 'B' teams (club sides), but records suggest he also coached the national team against New Zealand. Marston was inducted to the Sport Australia Hall of Fame in 1990, the same year the Marston Medal was introduced for the best player of the national soccer league grand final.

He was one of the inaugural inductees into the Soccer Hall of Fame earlier this year.

Marston had an illustrious career - as did Farina as we set out in Super Soccer last week.

But no-one - and particularly not Joe Marston - denies the symbolism and importance of Frank Farina's appointment.

Australian football is finally at the point where we have not just one, but at least four, 'homegrown' products of the game who can take on the mantle of national coach.

"It's an enormous privilege and honour for me personally," said Farina.

"It's been a dream and an ambition of mine for a while, and I keep pinching myself to realise that it's actually a dream come true. I know I'm lucky to have the opportunity, but I also know it's a big job and requires a lot of hard work."

Not that Farina is scared of hard work. Anyone who has ever trained with him, played with him, coached him or even - as mere mortal fans - watched him, knows that he has always put in the effort.

"At least I'm not wondering where to start!" he laughs.

Farina's first priority is to sort out a draft schedule for the period leading up to World Cup qualification some time towards the end of 2001.

"You can't expect to set things in concrete this far out, but at least we can have something to work to and more importantly, I have a basis on which to talk with the players and their clubs."

He intends to visit the senior overseas-based players and their clubs as soon as possible when he starts his reign at the beginning of September.

"It's not the only thing, but planning and communication are vital - and they're something that we've missed out on in the past. It's very easy to be overseas playing week-in and week-out, but unless you've got family or friends who take the trouble to keep you up-to-date, you just wouldn't know what's going on here.

"That doesn't mean I'm going to be talking to all of them every week, but I do want to open the lines of communication between the players here and overseas and the 'official' part of Soccer Australia through me. The clubs are also important, particularly the overseas clubs.

"I know what it's like to be the meat in the sandwich between club and country, and I think it's important that there's give and take," he said.

Farina intends meeting with coaches or senior staff of teams where key Australians are playing, such as Leeds, Manchester United, Coventry, Fiorentina, 1860 Munich and others.

"Many of these coaches will at least have heard of me from my seven years in Europe, so although I'm not Terry Venables or Roy Hodgson, I'm not a complete unknown. I want to talk to them too, so they have an understanding of where we're coming from and to reassure them that we don't intend invoking a FIFA regulation to call back Harry Kewell to play Vanuatu or something like that."

He also hopes to have a quick training camp while he's overseas and perhaps a friendly game if possible against Belgium or Holland. (Belgium's national coach is Farina's former coach at Club Brugge).

"It would be a good way to start off - have a game without too much fuss against some quality European opposition."

He also wants to check out a few Australian players with whom he's not familiar, and also spend time looking over the national league.

"I'm fairly familiar with who's around in the NSL, but it will be useful to look at players in a fresh light. Obviously, I'm particularly interested in some of the Olyroos as well."

His next priority is to get ready for the two games against Brazil in Melbourne and Sydney in November.

Farina laughs again. "Yes, it's a bit of an initiation to have Brazil as the first two home matches as a new coach, but it's all part of the challenge!"

Another priority is his support team.

His good mate, and Northern Spirit coach, Graham Arnold, will be his assistant with other support (such as physios) coming from within existing ranks.

He states that, as well as his assistant coach, the person who backs up the team off-the-park is also critical.

"If the work you don't see is done well, you don't even notice it. But if it's not done well, it's noticeable and can be part of the little things which add-up to annoy players and take their mind off the real task ahead.

I've seen it happen time and time again. I want to ensure that I have someone who I can rely on 100% and whom I can trust absolutely to get things right on my behalf."

As anyone who knows Frank Farina will attest, nothing but perfection is good enough.

He is known to be as competitive in training as he is in a game, and he demands the same level of commitment from his players and others involved with him.

New Zealand captain, and former team mate, Chris Zoricich calls him "the ultimate professional. Everything he does, his total commitment and professionalism comes through. At training, in public, in the media and, of course, in games. He's one hell of a competitor," said Zoricich.

Demanding Perfection. Competitive. Committed. Professional.

Not bad words to apply to the man who carries the hope of all Australian football fans with him into the new millennium, so that the ghosts of World Cups past may be laid to rest in 2002.

Combined tables

Super Youth League

Just one weekend to go in Super Youth League and the Blacktown City Demons have a massive lead at the top of the Combined table.

They picked up another eight points from their four matches against the Macarthur Rams at Lynwood Park, while Sydney Olympic collected thirteen points from the weekend - seven points from the Leichhardt Tigers and six points from the Southern Districts.

This gives them almost certain second spot as they hold a ten-point lead over the Newcastle Breakers, who picked up eight points at the Southern Branch.

The Gladesville Hornsby Association should clinch fourth as they picked up seven points at home to Marconi Fairfield, but Wollongong in fifth did pick up ten points from their home game with the Central coast.

Marconi Fairfield is in sixth spot and look like remaining their despite only picking up the four points against the Gladesville Hornsby Association.

At the bottom Eastern Suburbs picked up four points against the Leichhardt Tigers but they will finish with the wooden spoon, while the central coast and Manly Warringah Dolphins are both on 81 points, but the Dolphins have games in hand.

The Coasties did pick up five points from games against Wollongong and the Southern Branch, but manly were surprising Sydney united by travelling to Werrington and coming away with seven points.

Division One Youth League

Its congratulations to AC United, who finished six points clear on the combined table in the Division One Youth league.

They collected ten points from their games with Hills United while the Illawara lions, who finished second, collected eighteen points from games against the Penrith Panthers and the Bonnyrigg White Eagles.

In third came the Bankstown Association, who took nine points from the Stanmore Hawks, and two points behind them in fourth place was Ryde City, who took thirteen points from the two games they played.

The Blacktown Association and the Bonnyrigg White Eagles made up fifth and sixth, while at the bottom Canterbury Marrickville picked up four points from the Canterbury Association but couldn't move off the bottom. Second to bottom were the Fairfield Bulls, who picked up three points from the Blacktown Association, and then came Rockdale, who were well clear of the bottom two.

Super Youth League

Round 29 review

There's just one game left in the 1999 Super Youth League regular season, and most of the important issues have been settled already.

In three of the age groups the top team cannot be caught, while the top four for the semi final series looks to be already established.

G13

The Blacktown City Demons go into this weekend twenty points clear at the top of the G13 table, although Macarthur did score a rare goal past them as the Demons came away from Lynwood Park with a 2-1 win.

Wollongong look good for second after a 4-1 win over the Central Coast, who with that defeat and a 1-0 loss at the Southern Branch finished bottom.

Sydney Olympic and Newcastle are in third and fourth respectively and cannot be caught, and will probably play each other next weekend in the semi finals.

Sydney Olympic played two games but were only able to pick up one point, as they went down 3-1 to the Southern Districts side before drawing 1-1 with the Leichhardt Tigers.

That allowed Newcastle to draw level

All matches to be played on Saturday August 28

on points with Olympic, as the Breakers defeated Southern Branch 1-0 at Zealand Oval.

The Parramatta Eagles are in fifth as they won 3-0 over the Sutherland Sharks, but Leichhardt in sixth are just a point behind with a game in hand.

The Tigers beat Eastern Suburbs 4-0 to add to their point at Sydney Olympic.

The Gladesville Hornsby Association are next and they had a 3-2 win at home to Marconi Fairfield, and then its the Southern Districts, who despite defeating Sydney Olympic went down 2-0 top the Macarthur Rams in a round 24 re-arranged match.

The days other game saw Sydney United and Manly Warringah Dolphins draw 0-0 at Werrington.

G14

Sydney Olympic, the top team in the G14 competition, picked up two more wins after defeating the Southern Districts 4-1 and the Leichhardt Tigers 3-1.

Blacktown should clinch second spot this weekend after they defeated Macarthur 4-1, although they could be caught by Sydney United who won 1-0 at home to the Manly Warringah Dolphins.

The top four will be completed by the Gladesville Hornsby Association, although they went down 3-1 to Marconi Fairfield.

Leichhardt are fifth after a busy week for them - a 2-2 draw against Eastern Suburbs, a 3-1 win over the Southern Branch and the 3-1 defeat by Sydney Olympic being their results.

The Southern Districts are sixth, as although they too went down to Sydney Olympic they did have a 3-1 win over the Macarthur Rams.

Newcastle are seventh and drew 2-2 with the Southern Branch, with Wollongong eighth after a 5-0 win over the Central Coast. The Coasties also went down 3-1 at the Southern Branch to finish bottom.

The days other game saw the Parramatta Eagles defeat the Sutherland Sharks 2-1 at Melita Stadium.

G15

Blacktown just need a point from their last game of the regular season to ensure they cannot be caught at the top of the G15 table.

They could have clinched it on the weekend but were held to a 0-0 draw at Macarthur, but Marconi Fairfield in second couldn't extend any more pressure, also drawing at the Gladesville Hornsby Association, 2-2.

The association side are in third and making up the top four are the Southern Districts, who picked up a 4-2 win over Sydney Olympic and a 3-0 win over the Macarthur Rams, who were unable to repeat the fine performance they had shown against the leaders.

Newcastle will finish fifth and defeated the Southern Branch 5-2, while Sydney United are next although they lost 1-0 to the Manly Warringah Dolphins.

Sutherland are seventh and have had a fine season, although they went down 3-1 to the Parramatta Eagles, then its Wollongong, who were held to a 1-1 draw with the Central Coast.

The Coasties also drew with the Southern Branch 2-2, and its the Southern Branch who unfortunately will be collecting the wooden spoon.

In ninth spot is Leichhardt, who defeated Eastern Suburbs 2-1 and Sydney Olympic 3-1, Olympic's second defeat of the week.

G16

Sydney Olympic had no such troubles in the G16 competition, picking up two wins, 3-2 over the Southern Districts and 1-0 over the Leichhardt Tigers.

Newcastle will finish in second place and they were held to a 1-1 draw at the Southern Branch, while Blacktown also drew 1-1, this time at the Macarthur Rams.

Leichhardt are level on points with the Demons and it looks like those two teams will be playing next weekend in the semi finals, but the Tigers suffered the loss to Sydney Olympic and also went down 1-0 at Eastern Suburbs.

The Parramatta Eagles are fifth and had a 3-0 win over the Sutherland Sharks, and they are followed by Wollongong who hammered the Central Coast 5-1.

The Gladesville Hornsby Association are next and they had a 2-0 home win over Marconi Fairfield, and while the Coasties may have been beaten easily by the Wolves they did have a fine 3-0 away win at the Southern Branch.

The Manly Warringah side traveled to Sydney United and won 2-1, but despite their victory over the Leichhardt Tigers it looks like Eastern Suburbs will finish bottom.

Division One Youth League

G13

The Illawara Lions finished the regular season of the 1999 Division One Youth league the way they started it - with a win. Their latest victory saw them defeat the Penrith Panthers 3-0, and they finished a massive sixteen points clear of the second-placed team.

They also defeated the Bonnyrigg White Eagles 4-0 in a re-arranged match as well, while the Bankstown Association in second also finished strongly, winning 2-0 away at Stanmore.

The Blacktown Association finished third after two 1-0 wins, defeating the Fairfield Bulls on Saturday and also defeating Ryde City at Macquarie Uni in a re-arranged match.

Division One Youth League

Major Semi Final
Saturday August 28 Valentine Sports Park (no 2)
G13 Illawara Lions v Bankstown Association 9:30am
G14 Ryde City v Bonnyrigg White Eagles 11:00am
G15 AC United v Hills United 12:45pm
G16 Bankstown Association v Blacktown Association 2:30pm

Minor Semi Final
Saturday August 28 Valentine Sports Park (no 3)
G13 Blacktown Association v AC United 9:30am
G14 AC United v Penrith Panthers 11:00am
G15 Bonnyrigg White Eagles v Bankstown Association 12:45pm
G16 Stanmore Hawks v Illawara Lions 2:30pm

The association team therefore finished a point above AC United in fourth, although AC did all they could, winning 2-0 at Hills United.

Hills finished fifth, and St George in sixth drew 1-1 with the Bonnyrigg White Eagles, who then went down to that defeat to the league leaders.

Canterbury Marrickville ended up with the wooden spoon after a 1-0 defeat at the Canterbury Association, while Saturday's other game saw Rockdale and Ryde fight out a 1-1 draw.

G14

Like the G13 competition we had a runaway winner, Ryde City finishing fourteen points clear at the top of the table.

Saturday saw them defeat the Rockdale City Suns 3-1, before winning their re-arranged match with the Blacktown Association 1-0.

Bonnyrigg finished second after two good wins, beating St George 1-0 away from home and then doing the same at Illawara.

Ac United and the Penrith Panthers took both third and fourth spot and semi final places, AC United picking up a point in a 1-1 draw with Hills United, while the panthers were going down 2-0 at home to the Illawara lions.

Fairfield finished bottom and went down 3-0 at home to the Blacktown Association, with the Canterbury Association and Canterbury Marrickville sharing the point in a 0-0 draw and the Bankstown Association defeating the Stanmore Hawks in the days other game 1-0.

G15

AC United finished some twelve points clear at the top of the G15 table, and they finished the regular season with a 2-0 win at Hills United.

It was Hills United who actually finished second so the two teams will play this weekend in semi finals mode, although Bonnyrigg in third so easily could have been playing the leaders.

They finished just a point behind Hills United, but two 1-0 defeats, to St George and the Illawara Lions cost them second spot.

The Bankstown Association are the team who finished fourth to claim the last semi finals spot, and they came away from the Stanmore Hawks with a 2-0 win at Arlington Oval.

Penrith in fifth just missed out, although they did beat Illawara 3-0, and the Blacktown Association in sixth had three fine wins during the week, 6-2 at the Fairfield Bulls, 4-0 against Rockdale and 2-0 against Ryde.

Saturday had seen the Gunners defeat Rockdale 8-0 at the Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre, so Rockdale finished bottom, with Canterbury Marrickville getting a good 1-0 win at the Canterbury Association.

G16

The Bankstown Association finished six points clear at the top of the G16 table, even though they ended the regular season with a 2-0 defeat at Stanmore.

The Blacktown Association finished second after playing three games in the week - Saturday seeing them lose 1-0 at Fairfield but two re-arranged games bringing two victories, 1-0 at Ryde City and 2-0 at Rockdale.

Stanmore's win over the leaders saw them finish third, and they will play the Illawara Lions who came fourth after two wins of their own - 2-1 at Penrith and 4-2 at home to Bonnyrigg.

Ryde City finished fifth and just missed out after their defeat against the Blacktown Association, although they did inflict another 2-0 defeat on Rockdale.

The Canterbury Association were sixth after their 3-0 win over Canterbury Marrickville, while Bonnyrigg did pick up something from the weekend,winning 3-1 at St George.

The other round 26 game played saw AC United defeat Hills United 1-0 at the Fred Caterson Reserve.

Division Two Youth League

Finals series

Saturday saw both the Minor and Major Semi Final take place at Valentine Park with some exciting games being played.

G13

The Major Semi Final saw the Nepean Association, who finished five points above their opponents in second, the Ku-ring-gai Association, eventually win through in extra time.

It was a close run thing though, as the game finished 2-2 in normal time, only for the Nepean Association take it 3-2 in extra time to advance to the Grand Final.

The Ku-ring-gai Association get a second chance this weekend though, as they now play Mt Pritchard to see who will play the Nepean Association in the Grand Final.

Mt Pritchard defeated Macquarie Sports 2-0 to advance another stage, ending Macquarie Sports' 1999 season.

G14

There was nothing separating the top two teams in the regular season, and fittingly only one goal separated them in the Major Semi Final.

Macquarie Sports and Mt Pritchard both finished the season on 43 points, and there game ended in a 1-0 win to Macquarie Sports.

Mt Pritchard will now play the Camden Tigers, after the Tigers knocked out the Nepean Association also in a close one, winning 2-1.

G15

Hajduk Wanderers finished five points clear at the top of the G15 table and showed their superiority over the other teams when they defeated Parramatta City 4-2 in the Major Semi Final.

In the Minor Semi Final Mt Pritchard knocked out the Ku-ring-gai Association 1-0, so this weekend will see Parramatta City and Mt Pritchard battling it out for the right to play Hajduk in the Grand Final.

G16

The Nepean Association stormed through to the Grand Final with a 4-1 win over second-placed Camden Tigers.

The Tigers will now play Mt Pritchard this weekend in a game that will see who will play the Nepean Association, with the losers saying goodbye to their season.

Mt Pritchard earned that right after defeating Mt Druitt 2-1 in the Minor Semi Final.

Division Two Youth League

Preliminary Final

Saturday August 28 at Valentine Park (no 1)
G13 Ku-ring-gai Association v Mt Pritchard 9:30am
G14 Mt Pritchard v Camden Tigers 11:00am
G15 Parramatta City v Mt Pritchard 12:45pm
G16 Camden Tigers v Mt Pritchard 2:30pm

Cadet League Division One

Round 21 review

G11

Canterbury Marrickville remained three points clear at the top of the G11 table after they defeated the Parramatta Eagles 3-0 at Henson Park.

Sydney United remain hot on their heels though as defeated the Bonnyrigg White Eagles 5-2, and while ST George are in third they cannot catch the top two.

They defeated Ryde City 4-0 though, and making up the top four at the moment is Marconi Fairfield, who defeated the Macarthur Rams 2-1.

Leichhardt is fifth and looking for Marconi Fairfield to slip up after the Tigers 2-0 win at Parramatta City.

Sydney United look good at the top of the table although they didn't play on the weekend.

St George used that opportunity to narrow the gap after defeating Ryde City 7-0, while the Parramatta Eagles in third had a 2-0 win at Canterbury Marrickville.

Marconi Fairfield is fourth and they won 2-0 at the Macarthur Rams, while the days other game saw Parramatta city defeat the Leichhardt Tigers 3-0.

Cadet League Division Two review

Round 26 review

G11

The last round in the G11 competition gave us our top four teams, with Macquarie Sports, Illawara Lions, Penrith Panthers and Hills United all moving into the semi-final stage.

Macquarie Sports had a 5-1 win over CSI Schofields to finish their regular season in style, while the Illawara Lions defeated Mt Druitt 4-1.

Penrith finished third and had a 1-1 draw with Hajduk Wanderers, while in fourth Hills United defeated the Hurstville City Minotaurs 3-0.

Stanmore just missed out on the top four, although they played two games and won them both, 3-0 over Hurstville in a round 20 re-arranged match and 2-0 over Hawkesbury City last Sunday.

The other game on Sunday saw Moorebank Sports travel to Mt Pritchard and come away with a 2-1 win at Cook Park.

G12

Stanmore finished six points clear at the top of the table after two wins during the week. They defeated Hurstville City 4-1 in a re-arranged match, then defeated Hawkesbury City 4-0 in their round 26 game.

Macquarie Sports were second and they had a 1-1 draw with CSI Schofields at Northlakes Oval, so CSI Schofields missed a chance to move from third to second.

Making up the top four is the Illawara Lions, who drew 1-1 with Mt Druitt.

Hurstville at the bottom not only went down to the leaders Stanmore but also lost 3-1 to Hills United at Beverley Hills Park, while Moorebank went to Mt Pritchard and came away with a 2-0 win.

The days other game saw Hajduk Wanderers defeat the Penrith Panthers 1-0 at Kingswood Park.
